SYDNEY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Family Concerts

Presented in association with the Sydney Opera House Trust

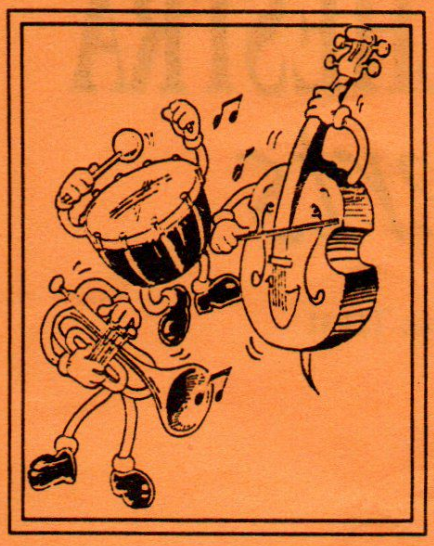
SSO Family Concerts are the best way to see and hear the Symphony Orchestra in an informal manner.

You will hear some music you know and some you don't, but all the music you hear can be enjoyed by the whole family.

Each performance will be presented by the very best musical communicators - Brian Buggy and Richard Gill.

There are five programs, all reasonably priced - $54 for a family of four with other concessions available.

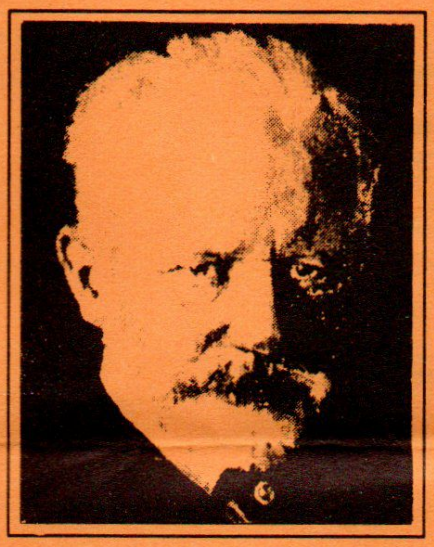
There are prizes to be won and lots of balloons and streamers and pre-concert foyer entertainment to enjoy!



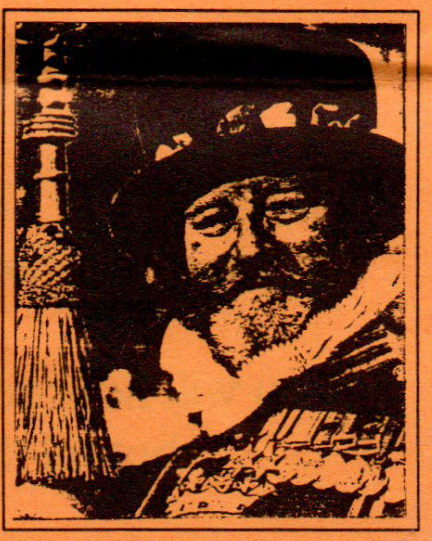
SSO 1991 Family Concert Programs

Meet the Orchestra (March 2) is the best way to meet the players and hear the instruments. This concert features the flute, harp, clarinet, trumpet, viola and double bass - all members of the SSO playing with the SSO under Richard Gill, playing the music of Mozart, Haydn, Glinka and Rimsky-Korsakov.

Operetta: The Lighter Side Of Opera (April 27) features some of the most delightfully melodic music from the prolific pens of Johann Strauss II, Franz Lehar, Kalman, Offenbach, and others, sung by some of Australia's most promising young singers with the Combined High Schools' Choir and the Langshaw Ballet, all on stage with the SSO conducted by Brian Buggy.



Tchaikovsky: A Musical Portrait (July 5) presents a music-picture of the life and times of this most-loved of Romantic Russian composers through his wide spectrum of symphonic music, with the Langshaw Ballet and the SSO conducted by Brian Buggy.
This concert will be represented at the Hills Centre on July 6.



The Best of British (September 21) is an opportunity to hear some of the great composers of British music. Join in Marching through the British Isles and Jerusalem, enjoy the grandeur of Elgar, Vaughan Williams and Arthur Sullivan, and enter into the spirit of a Final Night at the Proms with Brian Bugg conducting the SSO and the Combined High Schools' Choir.

December brings our traditional Christmas concert when Richard Gill returns to conduct the SSO with the Langshaw Ballet and the Combined High Schools' Choir with carols, a ballet pantomime and a program that grows like A Christmas Tree. (December 7)

Book now! while there are still seats available. There are less than 3,000 seats remaining.
